RE: Rev Mantima Thekiso leaving RandMeth

It is with mixed feelings that we announce that Rev Mantima Thekiso will be leaving Randburg Methodist Church at the end of 2020, to take up an offer to further her studies while having an opportunity to lecture, at the University of KwaZulu Natal.

This seems to be in line with Rev Thekiso's love for teaching while still honouring her spiritual calling.

We are happy that our minister has been presented with such a wonderful opportunity. We have no doubt that she will make a great contribution to the University and the theological training of many others, while also pursuing her personal and spiritual growth.

Rev Thekiso will be with us until end Nov / early Dec, while we engage with church process to find an able and suitable replacement minister.

Of course, we are sad to lose her, as she has made such a positive difference to the life of our congregation. Indeed she leaves us in a better place. We have learned a lot from her and have become very fond of her.

We wish her well in her future endeavours.

Kind Regards
Randburg Methodist Stewards
